To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is to express our gratitude to EZ Worldwide and especially to Michael Bottone who has provided our Company the right shipping solutions at the right cost.

When I was first approached by Michael I was taking things for granted, and I wish that I had known him a lot earlier. You would never believe how much you could save until you actually see your new invoice for the same shipment. If you would like to save like I do, just spend some more time with Michael. He will help you find the right shipping solutions at the right cost for you.

Once again, I offer many thanks to Michael and his team at EZ. Keep up the great work!

Best regards,

Richie
